Excerpts from Statement in Dog World: 18/12/2009

The General Committee has confirmed that Breed Clubs can add a requirement to their B List criteria that judges should have undertaken and passed the relevant seminars/assessments and the GC would encourage them to do so. Exhibitors have a reasonable expectation whenever they enter a ring, at whatever level of show, that the judge passing judgement on their dog is qualified to do so.

The KC is keen to ensure the highest possible standards of fairness and knowledge for all judges. Although the committee is not proposing at this stage that completion of these judging seminars should immediately become mandatory for inclusion on a breed club's b list, it may well move towards that position at some time in the future. In view of this, all breed clubs are requested to consider their current judging list criteria in this respect. As stated above, breed clubs are entitled, if they wish, to add such a requirement to their B list criteria and the GC would encourage them to do so
